

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law protections. It is an invasion of my privacy when businesses call. They get very aggressive with their sales pitches and I get very upset with them. They have no right to harrass me on my phone. Please leave the law the way it is.